SEEDS: Dance Laboratory, Workshops & More

Produktionszentrum Stuttgart invites all dancers to a special new encounter of dance: SEEDS – a dance laboratory-festival.

In four intensive days, from the 5th to the 8th of September, the dance scene will be witnessing and participating in the interaction between two fabulous and international choreographers: Edan Gorlicki and Evangelos Poulinas.

Every day, after a physical warm-up, the choreographers will share and exchange tools of their own works with the participants. SEEDS is a laboratory, in the form of workshops, for artistic practice and exchange of creativity. A coaching program, meeting rooms, showings, and talks will frame our new dance laboratory-festival.
